24. [REDACTED] LIAISON Received a call from Jack Brady, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee. Brady said some of the staff members of the Subcommittee on International Organizations (Fraser Subcommittee) had informed him that the Justice Department had completed its action on the Derwinski matter but that executive agencies (particularly CIA) were still unwilling to resume access by the Subcommittee staff to documents not previously examined or witnesses interviewed. I told Brady that our information was quite to the contrary and that as I had indicated to him several days ago, the Attorney General had advised the Director that the Fraser Subcommittee matter was still open. I also restated to Brady my hope that before the Subcommittee issued subpoenas for further access to material and witnesses that Representative Donald Fraser (D., Minn.) or Chairman Clement Zablocki (D., Wis.) would discuss this matter further with the Attorney General. Brady thanked me for my assistance and said he would keep me informed.

25. [REDACTED] LIAISON Talked with Stan Taylor, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, about the progress being made by the Committee staff in investigating Ambassador Carlucci's background in connection with his nomination to be DDCI. Taylor had confirmed that the Committee had received Ambassador Carlucci's nomination from the White House. He also asked me about the Detroit Free Press article alleging that Secretary of State Vance and Dr. Brzezinski, Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, were unhappy with Admiral Turner and were trying to get rid of him. I told Taylor I was aware of the rumors because of the press article but told him I was aware of nothing specific on this. I did comment, however, that anyone who is placed in a difficult position such as Admiral Turner is bound to be the subject of criticism or unhappy reaction.

27. [REDACTED] LEGISLATION Called John Elliff, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to ask about hearings scheduled for 24 January on S. 1566, the electronic surveillance legislation. Mr. Elliff said that the American Civil Liberties Union and Mortin Halperin were the scheduled witnesses, and Senator Birch Bayh (D., Ind.) had a prepared statement. He also said that the next scheduled hearings were 3 February and the Committee would begin mark-up the week after those hearings.
